

Endorsement for Department Chaplain

Sigvard C. Aasen Unit 210 Galesburg, ND proudly endorses Virginia Satrom for the office of Department Chaplain. Virginia's eligibility comes from her husband Wayne Satrom, a Vietnam Era veteran and member of Post 210 Galesburg.

Virginia, an active member of Unit 210 and has served in leadership capacity at the unit level as treasurer, secretary and president as well as President of District 1 and on the department's Finance Board. Virginia's personal qualifications for chaplain include her caring personality and desire to help others. Virginia has a positive attitude and will be able to provide spiritual council to department officers and auxiliary members alike and will continue to be a strong leader in support of all veterans.
