

What Information is Needed?

-  Veteran's Branch of Service
-  Veteran's Name
-  Veteran's Date of Birth
-  Veteran's Upcoming VA Appointments (if applicable)
-  Mailing Address of Recipient

How is the Award Presented?

Once a certificate and coin have been issued by the Secretary of VA, CDCE will make every effort to coordinate the presentation of the coin and recognition letter with VA leadership or staff while the Veteran is present at a VA facility for a scheduled appointment.

If the Veteran has no scheduled upcoming VA appointments, the letter and coin will be mailed to the address provided in the nomination form.

Centenarian Recognition Program

Celebrating A Lifetime

VA Centenarian Program

The Centenarian Recognition Program is a special initiative to honor Veterans turning 100 years old.

It began in November 2020 with the former Secretary of Veterans Affairs, Robert Wilkie, who provided a signed letter and coin. The current Secretary, Doug Collins, is continuing the program.

VA Center for Development & Civic Engagement (CDCE) oversees the process and logistics.

From initial request to presentation, the process takes about one month to complete.
